Shaikh Mohammad Bin Hamad Bin Mohammad Al Sharqi, Crown Prince of Fujairah, said Emirati astronaut Sultan Al Neyadi was a source of pride and inspiration to the people of UAE.

The Fujairah Crown Prince was interacting with the "Sultan of the Space" via a live video link as part of the "A Call from Space" event organised by the Mohammad Bin Rashid Space Centre (MBRSC), in Fujairah yesterday.

Remarkable achievement

At the outset, Shaikh Mohammad conveyed greetings from His Highness Shaikh Hamad Bin Mohammad Al Sharqi, Member of the Supreme Council and Ruler of Fujairah, to Al Neyadi, who has spent more than four months aboard the International Space Station (ISS).

He highlighted Shaikh Hamad's interest in following up on Al Neyadi's journey, expressing his pride in his historical international mission that consolidates the UAE's reputation among all countries across the world.

Held at the Fujairah Creative Centre in collaboration with the Fujairah Crown Prince Office, the event was attended by Shaikh Rashid Bin Hamad Al Sharqi, Chairman of Fujairah Culture and Media Authority, Shaikh Abdullah Bin Hamad Bin Saif Al Sharqi, and Shaikh Ahmed Bin Hamad Bin Saif Al Sharqi.

Shaikh Mohammad emphasised that Al Neyadi's remarkable achievement exemplified the aspirations of the country's founding fathers and the leadership's vision in space exploration at the Arab and international levels.

Event draws a crowd

He also praised Al Neyadi as an inspiration and role model for children and youth interested in space exploration and research.

In response, Al Neyadi expressed gratitude to the Crown Prince of Fujairah and eagerly answered questions from the audience.

The event saw the participation of more than 1,300 people from various segments of society.
